

Remembering the Victims of Kansas Storms

Fourteen people were killed by the tornado and storms that swept through Kansas the weekend of May 4, 5 and 6, destroying the town of Greensburg. I join Kansans and all Americans in mourning the loss of life from these storms. The prayers of my family and I are with the friends, neighbors and relatives who lost loved ones.

Lives Claimed by Weekend Storms:

Robert "Tim" Buckman, 46, Macksville, KS

Richard J. Fry, 62, Albuquerque, NM

Alex Giles, 84, Hopewell, KS

Kitty Greenwood, 54, Bennington, KS

Claude Hopkins, 79, Greensburg, KS

Larry Hoskins, 51, Greensburg, KS

Evelyn Kelly, 75, Greensburg, KS

David Lyon, 48, Greensburg, KS

Colleen Panzer, 77, Greensburg, KS

Ron Rediger, 57, Greensburg, KS

Sarah Tackett, 71, Greensburg, KS

Beverly Volz, 52, Greensburg, KS

Harold Schmidt, 77, Greensburg, KS

Max McColm, 77, Liberal, KS

